

Admiral Nursing in an acute hospital : creating a dementia-friendly environment

Jeni Bell

Admiral Nurse Clinical Specialist

Karen Harrison Dening Practice
Development Admiral Nurse

23rd Alzheimer Europe Conference

“Living well in a dementia friendly society”

Malta, 10-12 October 2013

Background

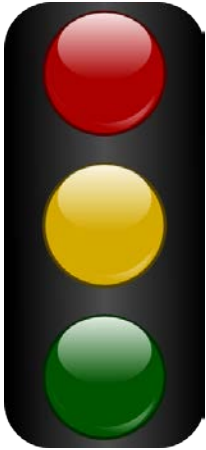

- The Admiral Nursing model
- Diversification of the approach
 - Statutory sector
 - Private sector
 - Voluntary sector
- Challenges and policy drivers to change
- The acute hospital approach

Dementia care in Southampton University Hospital

- Why
 - A 'vision'
 - Funding available
 - Modernising posts
- How
 - Becoming part of the 'vision'
 - Partnership with Dementia UK
 - Dementia Challenge bid

Barriers and Enablers

- Staff attitudes
 - Internal & External
- Environment
- Change
- Visionary manager
- Dementia UK partnership
- Insider/outsider knowledge
- Hidden potential

Achievements to date

- Staff awareness and education
- Partnership working with family carers
- Person Centred Care
- Dementia friendly environment
- Dementia Partnerships
 - In reach and outreach
- Carer Cafés
- Meeting targets and maximising on resources
- And in the future.....

Thank you for listening!

Jeni.bell@uhs.nhs.uk

Karen.harrison-dening@dementiauk.org